Ocean Beach Historical Society Presents
“WWII COMES TO O.B.”
Featuring Dedi Ridenour
Thursday, July 17, 7PM
at P.L. United Methodist Church,
1984 Sunset Cliffs Blvd., O.B.

Be transported back to the frightening start of WWII in O.B. by hearing an Ocean Beach native Dedi Ridenour tell of hearing “WAR IS DECLARED!”, seeing armed soldiers patrolling Sunset Cliffs Blvd. (her front yard), about a hair-raising 45 mile trip in black-out, martial law, and air raids. Hear the actual unpublished words of a Navy doctor’s wife contemporaneous journal describe the anxiety, bravery and courage of our local OBceans as they faced possible invasion by Japan in the first weeks of the war.

Hear about O.B. Elementary School’s air raid drills, finding k-rations washed up on shore, and how growing up in a war affected these children later.

Dedi will share a recently found document she discovered while digging for material for the new Ocean Beach historic book. This family treasure is a 72-year-old historical piece Dedi’s own mother wrote. She will share it at the July 17th OBHS program, “WWII comes to O.B.”.

1887 OB MAP Poster

The 1887 O.B. Historical map poster (in color) has lovely calligraphy, the old street names and the railroad lines. Also has locations and names of the beaches & rock formations, sand dunes and fresh water springs. The map's natural aging, torn edges and stains gives it a wonderful pirate-map quality.

1887 Map $20 ea.
(includes tax)

• CASH DONATIONS • HISTORICAL INTERVIEWS • ARCHIVAL SUPPLIES

PRESERVE OB'S HISTORY!

THE OBHS ARCHIVES HELPS PRESERVE OUR COMMUNITY'S HISTORY

The OBHS Archives was founded to preserve the history of Ocean Beach and the peninsula. The Archives Room is housed in space rented from the PLUM Church in O.B., where the OBHS programs are held.

The collection includes: Photos, maps, books, papers, newspapers, letters & artifacts. Also, an extensive biography index and San Diego City Directories from 1926 to 1984 which list people, their spouses & occupations. Residents are also listed by street address. Dedicated volunteers assist with the processing.

DONATIONS TO THE ARCHIVES ARE WELCOME.

Many people believe that their lives are of no interest to others, but they are!

Unfortunately, photographs, house plans, business & organization records, and family papers end up in the trash after a death in the family... photographs depicting people, their activities & customs, homes & buildings, and dress. Some O.B. buildings vanish or functions change almost overnight and new ones appear. The cliffs erode and scenery changes. The OBHS Archives provide an invaluable window into O.B.'s past.

When donating photographs to the Archives, please remember to date, identify the people and places in them.
Reluctant to give up your photos or papers? The Archive's staff would be happy to copy and safely return items to you with your permission to use the materials.

Preservation work often needs support & supplies.
