Ocean Beach Historical Society Presents

THE BOAT PEOPLE: FORMER FREE-ANCHORAGE LIVE-ABOARDS!

Featuring Gillian Lancaster & Friends
Thurs., November 20, 7PM
at P.L. United Methodist Church,
1984 Sunset Cliffs Blvd., O.B

After talking to the Duckman, Zeke and BooBoo, and learning the names of some of the boats, such as the "Love Shack", "Rapture", "Gillian's Box", you quickly realize why many of these people ended up living or hanging out in Ocean Beach. These free-spirited individuals, like our speaker Gillian, love the sun and water and being in a place with a relaxed lifestyle. Come learn the history of the FREE-ANCHORAGE (off Shelter Island), live-aboards and challenges. Enjoy a night of humorous tales!... Invite any former FREE-ANCHORAGE live-aboards, friends and businesses to join us—It's FREE!

THE "OCEAN BEACH" BOOK MAKES A BIG SPLASH!

The OCEAN BEACH HISTORICAL SOCIETY presented the Ocean Beach book to a large crowd during our August 21st program. The OBHS women worked hard on writing and putting the book together for Arcadia Publishing. We thank all those who donated images and information helping to make this a wonderful book.

HONORS THE CENTENNIAL ANNIVERSARY OF THE SAN DIEGO
PEACE MARCH OF 1914.*

*The huge downtown parade was the brain child of Madame Katherine Tingley, leader of the Theosophical Society on Point Loma. 2,000 people, including 600
Marines led by Col. J. H. Pendleton marched down C Street on Sept. 28, 1914.
The San Diego Union claimed it was "the greatest parade for universal peace held anywhere in the United States since the outbreak of the European War" (WW I).*

HISTORIC DETAILS OF MARCHERS IN THE 1914 PARADE INCLUDED: Police Chief Keno Wilson, Mayor Charles O'Neill, members of the City Council and the Board of Education,

THE OBHS ARCHIVES HELPS PRESERVE OUR COMMUNITY'S HISTORY

The OBHS Archives was founded to preserve the history of Ocean Beach and the peninsula. The Archives Room is housed in space rented from the PLUM Church in O.B., where the OBHS programs are held.

The collection includes: Photos, maps, books, papers, newspapers, letters & artifacts. Also, an extensive biography index and San Diego City Directories from 1926 to 1984 which list people, their spouses & occupations. Residents are also listed by street address. Dedicated volunteers assist with the processing.

DONATIONS TO THE ARCHIVES ARE WELCOME.
Many people believe that their lives are of no interest to others, but they are! Unfortunately, photographs, house plans, business & organization records, and family papers end up in the trash after a death in the family... photographs depicting people, their activities & customs, homes & buildings, and dress. Some O.B. buildings vanish or functions change almost overnight and new ones appear. The cliffs erode and scenery changes. The OBHS Archives provide an invaluable window into O.B.'s past.

When donating photographs to the Archives, please remember to date, identify the people and places in them. Reluctant to give up your photos or papers? The Archive's staff would be happy to copy and safely return items to you with your permission to use the materials.

Preservation work often needs support & supplies.
GIFTS MAY BE DONATED AT MONTHLY MEETINGS
